Sentence Suspended On Future Behavior

On condition of his good behavior for the next two years, Gordon R. Baird's sentence of 150 days in the county jail for disturbing the peace at the Fox Plaza theater, March 23, was suspended Friday. Baird pleaded guilty to the charge. The disturbance charge against Bert Homer, of San Diego, will be heard tomorrow at 2 p. m. here. Homer is at liberty on $100 bail.

Jubilee Leaders To Assist N. V. A.

Grace Market Has Adopted New Policy

With their store front painted an attractive blue and white in evidence of their membership in a powerful association of independent grocers, the Grace Market, 1629 Carson street, on April 1 launched a new policy which will be welcomed by all customers.

The Grace Market, as members of the Blue and White Association, will offer many inducements to the local trade in the way of cut prices on staples and fancy groceries and meats. They will sell for cash, and their savings in cost, effected by their membership in a powerful buying association, will be passed on to the consumer.

A glance at their advertising announcement in another part of this issue will demonstrate the substantial savings that will be offered at this popular market. Open every evening until 10 o'clock, open on Sundays and holidays, this market is a center for the district where it is located and enjoys at all times a thriving trade which will no doubt be greatly increased by the new cut rate policy of the management.

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Emma Jacobs

Funeral services for Mrs. Emma C. Jacobs, who died last Thursday morning at her home, 805 Madrid avenue, were held at Stone and Myers chapel Monday morning. Cremation followed at the Redondo crematory.

Mrs. Jacobs, who was 59 years old, is survived by her husband, John E. Jacobs; two daughters, Bernice Leffelman, of Portland, Ore., and Ma-Belle Balzhiser, of Eugene, Ore.; a son, George W. Jacobs, of Richland, Ore.; two sisters, Hilda Jenkins, of Los Angeles, and Sophia Sholia, of Portland; and three brothers, Dr. Allen O. Hansen, of Nashville, Tenn., Axel Hansen, of Westboro, Wis., and Claude Hansen, of South Dakota.

Hawthorne Host To Harbor Group

The Hawthorne Chamber of Commerce will be host Thursday, April 9, to the Harbor District Chambers of Commerce in Fraternal hall. This will be the regular monthly meeting of the Harbor group and it is expected at least 150 of the civic leaders in this territory will be present for the banquet.

Two-group meetings are scheduled for 4 o'clock, when the Highway committee and the Industrial committee of the District Chambers will assemble in separate sessions. The general business meeting at 5 o'clock will precede the banquet which will start at 6 p. m.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST.

Paul's words to the Corinthians. "The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal," constitute the Golden Text, Sunday, April 5, in the Lesson-Sermon on "Unreality," in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Responsive Reading includes Paul's counsel to Timothy: "But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. . . . But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness."

A Scripture citation from Matthew includes the following words of Christ Jesus: "Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? . . . A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit."

"A passage from 'Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures,' by Mary Baker Eddy, states: 'Everything good or worthy, God made. Whatever is valueless or baneful, He did not make, hence 'tis unreality.'"
